BRIDPORT has escaped the latest round of police cuts and will retain its station enquiry office, despite hundreds of thousands of pounds worth of savings announced by the force last week.

Dorset Police has been reassessing its approach to public contact and has unveiled proposals to slash spending on station front desks.

Across the county, the number of police stations with counter service provision is being reduced from 15 to nine and Bridport's is one of only four full-time enquiry offices remaining.

The force also announced the sale of its divisional headquarters at Ferndown, following an extensive review of its buildings launched in 2010.

The changes, which will collectively save an estimated £700,000, are part of plans to cut costs by almost £10 million by next year.

Councillor Sarah Williams, Leader of Bridport Town Council, said the announcement was "very good news" for the community.

She added: "Whilst the police station itself was not in danger of closure, the town council had raised its concerns when the public enquiry service was reduced at the station, and it has been working with the police to see what options there could be to continue providing this important service."

"The town council greatly appreciates the work of the local Bridport police officers, who work closely with the town council, and it looks forward to hearing in more detail about how the enquiry service is to be delivered."

PC Scott McGregor welcomed the news on behalf of Bridport's safer neighbourhood team.

He said: "Bridport officers and staff are extremely pleased with this decision as we know the sterling work our front desk colleagues do to support policing and engagement with the community."

While Bridport will keep its enquiry point, station desks at Dorchester, Shaftesbury, Wareham, Christ-church and Winton will all be closed.

Elsewhere, Blandford, Gillingham and Sherborne will have their opening hours cut to just two days a week, and police in Swanage and Winfrith will operate a 'sign posting' facility, directing members of the public to relevant services.

Announcing the proposals last week, Police and Crime Commissioner Martyn Underhill said the decision had "not been taken lightly".

He added: "I know that six front office counters are six too many, but we have to meet our cuts somewhere when we are losing 20 per cent of our budget."

"This decision has been one of the most challenging faced by Dorset Police in recent memory and, needless to say, it is not one that has been taken lightly."

"I think it is really important to remember that this time last year the force announced the proposal to close 12 out of 15 front office counters, and as a result of my intervention and the public intervention, the year-long consultation took place which leads us to closing six."

The force says that recent surveys indicate the majority of people prefer to contact the police by phone and efforts are being made to improve the 101 non-emergency service.

And along with moves to strengthen its online presence, Dorset Police say they will continue to deliver the "best possible service" to communities.

Chief Constable Debbie Simpson added: "The force continues to ensure that there is a policing footprint in every town in Dorset and that we continue to deliver local policing from these locations."

ACTOR Lloyd Gorman recently starred at the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis, taking on the lead role in the Shanty Theatre Company's summer production of 'The Story Giant'.

The play, based on the poem by Brian Patten, is about to be taken on tour with Dorchester, Weymouth and Bridport among the upcoming venues.

Lloyd was born in Chile but brought up in Norwich and has lived in London for the past 10 years.

● WHAT attracted you to a career in acting?

I enrolled into the Norwich Theatre Royal Arts Course at the age of nine to try and build confidence and meet new people. I stayed with that youth theatre for 10 years, developing skills and performing in all sorts of productions. Although I initially wanted to pursue a career in music, it soon became clear that acting was my focus. From my mid-teens I started to think seriously about attending drama school and committing myself to a career in acting.

● WHERE did you study?

I trained at Rose Bruford college in Sidcup on their unique actor musicianship programme. The use of actor musicians is extremely popular, and therefore there is a lot of work for it. It also means I can combine acting with music to tell a story; something that I wasn't aware I could do when I was younger.

● WHY did you join the Shanty Theatre Company?

I have known Tim Bell (one of the Artistic directors of both Shanty Theatre Company and the Marine Theatre) for a long time, as we both attended the same youth theatre in Norwich. I have followed Shanty's work since their inception and have always been impressed with their work ethic and output. They invited me to audition for 'The Story Giant' and I was delighted to be offered it.

● HAVE you been in any of their previous productions?

I haven't, but I saw both 'A Rats Tale' and 'The Rime of the Ancient Mariner'. I enjoyed both of them and it was interesting to see how the company had changed through the years.

● WHAT do you enjoy about playing the 'Story Giant'?

'The Story Giant' is a complex being. Frustrated, angry, saddened and desperate at his mortality. However, through this he is funny, witty and cheeky. It's these complexities of character that I enjoy about playing the Story Giant... and it is fun to be on stilts for two hours a night!

● WHAT did you like about performing at the*Marine Theatre?

I came to the Marine Theatre in July 2008 on a tour of 'Treasure Island'. It was my favourite venue on that tour for many different reasons, but mainly because of the warmth of the audience that attended. That warmth was present throughout our entire run of 'The Story Giant' at the Marine Theatre. It's a beautiful building in a beautiful setting, you can never get bored of the view from the dressing room.

● WHAT is your favourite role to date?

I find every role has its enjoyable elements, and have been enjoyable in different ways. If I had to choose one it would be the Beadle in 'Sweeney Todd' by Stephen Sondheim at The Octagon Theatre, Bolton. That is not my favourite because of the role specifically, but mainly because I love the show itself.

● WHAT would be your dream role?

My dream role would be Roy Cohn in the play 'Angels in America' by Tony Kushner.

● WHAT is the last book you read, film you watched, album you listened to?

The last book I read was 'Ham on Rye' by Charles Bukowski. The last film I watched was 'The Grand Budapest Hotel' and the last album I listened to was called 'This is the 3rd album of a band called Adebisi Shank' by Adebisi Shank.

● WHICH three people would you invite to your dream dinner party, and why?

I'd invite Tom Waits for his songs, and notebook of interesting facts (Lobsters don't have a posable thumbs). Spike Milligan for gags and poetry and Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy because they created some of my favourite moments in film. I realise that I've chosen four people when you asked for three, but you can't invite Laurel without Hardy!

The Shanty Theatre Company will be bringing 'The Story Giant' to Dorchester Arts Centre on October 1st, The Bay Theatre in Weymouth on October 23rd and Bridport Arts Centre on October 25th, as well as other venues in the area and across the country. For full details see www.shantytheatrecompany.co.uk

Pressure on council to subsidise bus services

PRESSURE to ensure the future of a "flagship" bus link connecting Bridport and Dorchester has been turned onto Dorset County Council, following public outcry at First Dorset's decision to axe evening services.

The commercial service provider announced changes to its winter timetables earlier this month, and proposals to withdraw some journeys have been met with fierce criticism from bus users.

The X31 service from Dorchester to Bridport, which extends as far as Axminster, is set to end at 7:15pm and journeys will be less frequent on Sundays.

The changes are due to come into effect this week and First has already been criticised for "sneaky and underhand" moves.

But bosses say the county council was given prior warning about the changes and could have moved to plug the gaps, which First now regards as commercially unviable.

In a statement released last week, a First spokesperson said: "We did give our usual three to four weeks' notice of the changes to service X31. Draft timetables were sent to both Devon and Dorset County Councils prior to registration and no concerns were raised then."

"The timetables were then registered and forwarded to other stakeholders, such as the Western Area Transport Action Group (WATAG)."

"We understand they have now raised their concerns with Dorset County Council's public transport

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemedial.co.uk

team.

"However, like us, they have been told there is no money currently to fund socially necessary bus journeys."

First also says the 8:15pm and 9:15pm late evening services, which are due to be scrapped, are used by fewer than 10 people.

The spokesperson added: "We would advise bus users who want to see these journeys reinstated to contact Dorset County Council, which is responsible for determining whether to fund any gaps left in the commercial running of these services."

Bus users have already raised concerns that evening workers will be left stranded and now face excessive taxi fees.

Campaigners also claim the continued erosion of less profitable bus services threatens Bridport's thriving tourism industry by restricting access.

County Councillor for Bridport Ros Kayes said First's figures "do not stack up" but urged the council to build in safeguards to prevent clashes of commercial and public interest.

She added: "In 2011 First declared the service was commercial and so Dorset County Council removed its subsidy. What I do not understand is how a commercially viable service can have suddenly become unviable – so far as First is concerned – in just four years.

"It looks as if they are separating off the parts of the service that make the least money from those that make a lot, instead of spreading the load."

"Dialogue over the principle behind this is what we need to have because the risk of the fallout of this is that any section of any service that does not make as much money as the peak-time service does can just be cut."

Councillor Peter Finney, the council's cabinet member for environment and the economy, said the drive to cut costs had limited the type of services that subsidies could be provided for, and evening services were no longer regarded as "essential".

He added: "To contribute towards the council's overall £47 million savings target, cabinet agreed last December to reduce the public transport budget by £822,000."

"One of the criteria used to decide those savings was that we could not support evening services, as we need to focus on meeting essential public transport needs."

"The transport budget is fully committed to existing routes and, where changes are made to a commercial service, we are not in a position to subsidise them."

The proposals will form the main focus of the WATAG meeting tomorrow (Thursday) at the W.I. Hall from 6pm.

Chairman Peter Smith said: "The meeting is open to all with an interest in local public transport and we are also a forum for town and parish councils to express their views and air problems about buses and trains."

Forum to hold open meeting

THE West Bay Community Forum is to hold an open meeting next week to discuss progress on a number of its ongoing projects.

The group is currently looking at ways the community can help to revitalise West Bay and members are due to provide updates at the meeting.

Members of the group and other residents are invited to attend at the Salt House on Thursday October 2nd, from 7:30pm.

Call for firefighters

DORSET Fire and Rescue Service is on the lookout for new recruits in Bridport and across the county.

An appeal has been issued for extra 'on-call' firefighters to join the teams at the county's retained fire stations.

Bosses are looking for people with a strong commitment to the community, a positive attitude and a good level of fitness.

Prospective candidates are encouraged to call in at their local fire station to find out more about opportunities to join the crews.

Damory to open outstation

BUS provider Damory says it will "cement" its operations in West Dorset by opening a new outstation in Bridport.

Staffed by drivers living in and around the area, the outstation will become the local base for school and other bus services.

The new facility will be situated near Bridport coach station and is set to be opened by the end of this month.

Damory Operations Manager Adam Keen said the site is part of the provider's "ongoing commitment" to improving its service to customers.

Mr Keen said: "Demand for buses here is on the rise and we are keen to invest in the future of services in Bridport. The time has come for Damory to open an operating base here."

"We have some fantastic staff who enjoy working in the town but who are currently based in a depot at Dorchester.

"This new outstation allows us to expand our West Dorset network and means we can provide improved services to passengers here, using a locally-based team."

Boost for orchard project

REAL progress is now being made on an ongoing project to develop a community orchard in Bridport, thanks to a significant donation from a local business.

Bosses at Palmers Brewery dipped into their community to fund to serve up £840 to help the group, which was able to use the cash to invest in some new equipment.

A range of tools and materials needed for work at the orchard has already been picked up by project leaders, who have quickly put the money to good use.

David Hawkins, the group's treasurer, said: "Palmers' donation has enabled us to board out all of the beds in the community allotment."

"We have also bought two scythes that have been used regularly over the summer to keep the long grass in check around the orchard and Jubilee Green."

"In addition, Palmers' donation has funded the purchase of billhooks, a maul and rods and bindings that will be used to lay the hedges surrounding the orchard over the autumn."

The Palmers Brewery Fund was established to support community projects in West Dorset and awards are made twice a year to worthy causes.

Company Chairman John Palmer met members of the group recently to hear about current projects at the orchard.

He said: "The orchard is exactly the kind of initiative that our fund was designed to support."

"It was a pleasure to see how our donation has been utilised and I am sure we will be able to support the community orchard with other projects in the future."

The next deadline for applications to the Palmers Brewery Fund is November 1st.

Businesses nominated for top tourism awards

THIRTY-EIGHT of Dorset's leading tourism businesses have been selected as finalists in this year's Dorset Tourism Awards, which will be presented at The Tank Museum, Bovington on October 16th.

The Dorset Tourism Awards were launched in 2013, and have gone to new heights this year with an increase in both categories and entries.

Each entry has been evaluated and scored by tourism professionals and a programme of visits were carried out, leading to recommendations for each category.

Finally these recommendations were considered by an independent panel. Finalists were selected from across the county with businesses from Lyme Regis, Weymouth, Bridport, Beaminster, Charmouth, and Dorchester among the list.

Andrew Alder of headline sponsors Saffery Champness, and a member of the judging panel, said: "We have been delighted by the high standard of entrants and the quality of their submissions."

"It's quite clear from all the hard work and commitment of the businesses involved that these awards have captured the imagination of the regional tourism industry and the accolades they bring."

Finalists must now wait until the Dorset Tourism Awards ceremony to find out whether they have won Gold, Silver or Bronze awards.

Successful businesses in the Dorset Awards will automatically be considered for the South West Tourism Excellence Awards in February 2015 and then possibly go on to represent Dorset at the National Enjoy England Awards later in the year.

LIST OF FINALISTS

Supermarket ram raid

BRIDPORT'S Co-operative supermarket became the latest retail outlet to be targeted by raiders, after a "large quantity" of cash was stolen in a smash-and-grab late on Monday evening, writes JACK DIXON.

Burglars slammed their vehicle into the shutters at the front entrance of the supermarket on Sea Road North, making off with a sum of money swiped from an ATM machine.

Police were alerted to the incident just before midnight on Monday and were continuing with their investigations on Tuesday afternoon when View from Bridport went to press.

Despite serious damage being caused to the front of the store, staff opened as usual on Tuesday morning, with customers being redirected through alternative entrances.

In the aftermath of the incident, a police spokesperson said: "Police responded to a report of a burglary at the Co-operative store in Bridport.

"It is believed the offenders forced entry into the front of the store and a large quantity of cash was stolen. A vehicle was used which we believe was driven into the shutters.

"Officers are continuing their investigation and no arrests have been made. We are appealing for witnesses and urge anyone with any information to contact Dorset Police by calling 101."

The burglary is the latest in a series of ram raids reported at retail premises across West Dorset in recent months, and is a repeat of a similar smash and grab on the ATM at the same Bridport supermarket back in October 2011.

Comparable incidents have been recorded in Mosterton and Charmouth this year and police have said they are trying to track down specific offenders.

A spokesperson for the Co-operative Food said the company would continue to support police with their investigation and urged anyone with new information to speak out.

The spokesperson said: "Despite extensive damage, the store reopened to serve the community at 9am. However, the ATM is currently unavailable. We would like to apologise for any inconvenience.

"CCTV footage has been given to the police who are investigating. As with any incident such as this, we would appeal for anyone with information to come forward."

Mary Boughton MBE, director of Dorwest Herbs, receives the company's Lifetime Achievement Award from Amanda Sizer Barrett MBE, Director General of PetQuip, at the awards ceremony earlier this month

Double celebration for DorWest

A BRIDPORT based business has won its second round of awards this year after being praised for their services earlier this month.

Dorwest Herbs, a herbal pet product manufacturer, has continued its winning streak by adding the Gold Award in the 'Supplier of the Year' category, which rewards their outstanding customer service and product support, to their ever growing list of awards.

The company also won the NatWest Venus Customer Service Award earlier this year alongside PAWCARS Best Trade Stand.

Members of the company received the gold award at the PetQuip ceremony in Harrogate at the Majestic Hotel on September 14th, as part of the PATS pet trade exhibition.

But that wasn't the only award they took home; Mary Boughton MBE, a director of Dorwest Herbs, won the company's first ever 'Lifetime Achievement Award'.

Mrs Boughton, alongside her husband Tony Boughton, has worked at Dorwest for the last 50 years and is involved within the pet and veterinary industry at many levels.

She is also vice-chairman of the National Office of Animal Health (NOAH) lectures to veterinary groups and pet care students as well as writing on the use of herbal medicines for companion animals.

Mrs Boughton has also been a champion for small businesses and was awarded an MBE for services to business and the community in 2005.

She said: "We are only a small company so to pick up two awards from such an illustrious international organisation like PetQuip is wonderful.

"I believe it is recognition for the connection we have with animals and the passion we show as a team. It is an honour to receive a lifetime achievement."

Dorwest Herbs were also highly commended for their new 'Oatmeal Advance Shampoo' in the grooming product category in PATS New Product Showcase.

Supporting Macmillan

BUSINESSES around Bridport are putting the kettle on to support Macmillan's biggest fundraising event.

John Bright Fencing, Smith & Smith outfitters, the Alleyways Bridport Antiques Centre and Hive Beach Café, are all taking part in the world's biggest coffee morning to raise funds for the cancer charity.

They will be opening their doors this Friday (September 26th) supplying coffee and cake to the public while raising vital funds for Macmillan.

Other businesses in Bridport, such as Colours Hair Studio on St Andrews Road, held their coffee morning earlier in the week and hundreds of businesses across Dorset are hoped to be taking part during the week.

Every year the coffee morning raises millions for Macmillan who provide financial, emotional, medical and practical support to people living with cancer.

Last year 154,000 people across the UK signed up for the coffee morning raising a record breaking £20 million for charity.

John Bright Fencing in Salway Ash and Smith & Smith outfitters on West Street will be serving coffee and cake from 10am to 12noon, the Hive Beach Café in Burton Bradstock from 10am to 11:45am and Alleyways Bridport Antique Centre will be serving from 10am to 4pm.

Another big name joins Broadchurch's stellar cast

COMEDY actress Meera Syal will be the latest star name to join the cast of acclaimed television drama Broadchurch, ITV has confirmed.

Filming is underway for the second series of the show, shot partly in West Bay, and cast members have been spotted in the area in recent weeks.

Broadcaster ITV has now confirmed that Ms Syal will accompany David Tennant and Olivia Colman in what is reported to be a "pivotal" role.

Meera Syal is best known for her comedy roles, writing and starring in Goodness Gracious Me and The Kumars at No. 42.

But she also has an established career as a straight actor, having performed Shakespeare on stage, as well as appearing alongside David Tennant in the BBC's radio series Double Income, No Kids Yet.

ITV's Director of Drama Steve November said he was "delighted" with the "stellar" cast now assembled for the new series. But the show's producers remain tight-lipped about Ms Syal's role and wider storylines for the new series.

She joins a cast of top stars already confirmed to appear, with Charlotte Rampling, James D'Arcy and Eve Myles among the names in line to feature in new episodes of the BAFTA-winning series.

Cast and crew are currently in Somerset, having filmed in West Dorset over the summer.

The second series is expected to air in spring next year.

Council election plans 'immoral'

PLANS to force town and parish councils to cover the cost of running local elections are "totally immoral" and will place a further burden on taxpayers in Bridport, a councillor has warned.

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemedial.co.uk

proposing to recharge the cost of elections to the lowest tier of local government, as it looks to make further savings.

As reported in last week's View From Bridport, outraged town councillors have already written to the district authority to express their concerns.

And now a prominent councillor, a representative for Bridport on both the town and district authorities, has spoken out against the plans.

Councillor David Tett said he would not be supporting any changes to the existing policy and urged WDDC to rethink its approach.

He added: "The district council has a statutory duty to hold local government elections and if town and parish councils were saddled with the costs, then such would impact upon, and reflect in, the council tax precept.

"A policy change could save the district council some £60,000 but at the same time burden yet further the council taxpayer, and this I regard as being totally immoral."

In a letter sent to WDDC earlier this month, town councillors warned that the added financial pressure could force them to make their own cutbacks.

And there are further fears that restrictions on the town council could discourage candidates from running and threaten the democratic value of the system.

In the letter, Bridport town clerk Bob Gillis, writing on behalf of town councillors, said that election costs would be a "barrier to democracy" and a survey of local authorities should precede any decision.

The plans were discussed by

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

WDDC's efficiency and scrutiny committee last week and have now been referred to the policy committee for further consideration.

A decision on the controversial proposals is expected to be made at a meeting on October 14th but WDDC has already indicated that it will ask town and parish councils for their views first.

In a previous statement, council leader Robert Gould said: "Before taking any decision likely to affect local democracy we would want to consult first with town and parish councils so that we properly understand how the possible different charging options might affect them."

TIMELY TRIP | Members of the Bridport and District University of the Third Age (U3A) took their longest trip so far to Coldharbour Mill in Uffculme, near Cullompton in Devon.

Twenty members of the 'Isn't That Interesting' group, who try to take an outing once a month, were given a guided tour of the centuries old working wooden mill.

They were shown the entire production process, beginning with the hand carding of the fleece, pictured - used to separate and straighten wool fibres - through spinning and weaving to produce the finished fabric.

All agreed the trip was money well spent.

Vintage shopping experience coming to town

ANTIQUES aficionados are to be treated to a vintage feast when an exciting new shopping experience arrives in Bridport this autumn.

Bosses at Molly's Den Emporium have confirmed they will be opening up a brand new store in Bridport in the next few weeks, adding to their three current branches along the South Coast.

The one-stop-shop for antique and vintage items, to be based on St Andrew's Trading Estate, will open its doors seven days a week from November, offering a range of handmade items from large furniture to clothing and collectables.

Shoppers can expect to get their hands on everything from kitchen equipment, china and glassware to records, books and other retro collectables.

A company spokesperson said: "With so many customers flocking from all over the country to visit, the director has confirmed the opening of a fourth den in picturesque Bridport this November.

"This will perfectly compliment the locations of the other emporiums, forming a line along the south coast with all the warehouses spreading vintage joy up and across the country.

"With three of the vintage and antique dens now going strong, these quirky places, packed full of unique items from hundreds of traders, are going from strength to strength with lots of new places on the horizon."

Round Table kite festival flies high

HUNDREDS of kite flyers and enthusiasts took to Eggardon Hill last weekend to take part in the 19th Bridport Kite Festival.

The annual event showcased kites of all colours, shapes and sizes, ranging from dragons and dinosaurs to frogs and owls.

Parents had the opportunity to teach their children how to fly a kite, entertaining them for hours in the process.

Children also had the chance to

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedial.co.uk

make and decorate their own kites at the event.

The Bridport Round Table took over as event organisers earlier in the year and Pete Dacey, chairman of the group, said: "This was the first year we have been involved with the kite festival and it went really well."

"We were asked in June to take over the festival and because it is a community event we didn't want to come in and change it so we made sure it included local groups."

"But it has been brilliant as the weather exceeded our expectations and it has been more than a pleasure organising the event."

"Thank you to the Powerstock community for working with us and making the kite festival as good as it has always been."

Ploughing and hedgelaying competition this weekend

THE annual Melplash Agricultural Society Ploughing and Hedgelaying Competition takes place this weekend (Sunday, September 28th) at Hingston Farm, North Bowood, Netherbury.

For over 150 years, West Dorset has hosted the competition at different farms across the county, which showcases the talents of our local farmers.

The ploughing competition starts at 10am and consists of eight classes, spanning over 60 years of machinery from a two furrow vintage match plough to a six furrow modern day plough.

Spectators are most welcome and their will be a charity auction by local auctioneer Jim Rowe to raise funds for the show's contribution towards the National Ploughing Championships in Yorkshire in June 2016.

The auction will take place just before the results, which are expected at 3:30pm.

Also running alongside the ploughing is the hedgelaying competition, which starts at 9:30am.

Competitors must lay ten metres of hedge in 'Dorset style', which has now been accepted into the National Competition in Lincolnshire in October.

Mr Russell Woodham, six times winner, will be taking part this year in hopes of defending his crown. The show society also recently offered a free hedgelaying training day to which 27 people attended to learn from some of Dorset's grand masters.

Directions to the farm will be signposted from The Gollop Arms on the Broadwindsor and Salway Ash road (B3162).

There are still spaces for competitors to enter the ploughing or hedgelaying, call the show secretary, Lucy Hart, on 01308 423337 or email lucy@melplashshow.co.uk or enter at the website at www.melplashshow.co.uk

Praise for dog mess clearing efforts

VOLUNTEERS who help clear up dog mess on Hive and Cogden beach have had their hard work and determination with their ongoing fight against dog poo shown on BBC One's Street Patrol.

The Poo Pin group (poo out people in), set up by dog walkers, works with the National Trust, the owners of the land, and have been officially operating for nine months – although volunteers from the group have been tidying the field for 10 years and caught the eye of the show's producers.

The Street Patrol series looks at the antisocial behaviour that blights people's everyday lives and how it is dealt with by authorities.

Helen Freeman, co co-ordinator of the group, said she was very proud to have the team's efforts on television to help raise awareness of what they do and why.

Aired earlier this month, the BBC programme focused on the group's campaign on the dangers of the spread of neosporosis in cattle, a disease caused by infected dog mess.

Rosemary Young, co co-ordinator and founder of the group, said: "The neosporosis bacteria lives in the soil for up to a year and the grass is grazed by cows."

"This can be very serious as a lot of cows can abort their young."

"The National Farmers Union (NFU) has printed many articles on this subject as it is a national problem and one here in our area that we want to eradicate."

Rowan Thompson, the National Trust Ranger for Burton Bradstock is pleased that they have help in tackling this problem and hopes the public are more aware of the effects dog mess can have on livestock.

He said: "The National Trust land at Burton Bradstock had a real problem with dog mess and the group, started by Rosemary Young and Helen Freeman, helped keep the area clean and helped farmers, as dog mess carries a high health risks to cows."

Volunteers have been cleaning Hive and Cogden beach of dog mess to help stop this problem and to keep the area clean and tidy for other dog walkers, while working alongside the Litter Free Coast and Sea campaign, the Bridport Dog Training group and Pads Dog Training group.

At Cogden Beach, the volunteers have concentrated on educating people to pick up and take home to protect the livestock on the fields.

Rosemary Young added: "We have been spraying the mess, keeping count and picking up and weighing the results."

"We have tirelessly kept this up for over six months and we are pleased to say that the Hive Beach area is nearly dog mess free."

Loders is crowned best village

A SMALL village near Bridport has been voted the best in Dorset after impressing judges with its tidy streets and annual festival.

Loders has been crowned Dorset's Best Small Village after winning this year's Dorset's Best Village competition.

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedial.co.uk

The contest, organised by Dorset Community Action and backed by Magna Housing, Communities Living Sustainably in Dorset and the Campaign to Protect Rural England, received 53 entries, which were divided into three categories: 'Best Large Village', 'Best Small Village' and 'Best Hamlet'.

The ladies from Loders WI entered the village into the competition and Jane Edwards, president of the group, said: "After we had entered and had sent a map of points of interest in Loders, we were told the judges would visit anytime between May, June and July."

"Fortunately they visited in May during our scarecrow festival which they were particularly impressed with, as it was the only one they had ever seen."

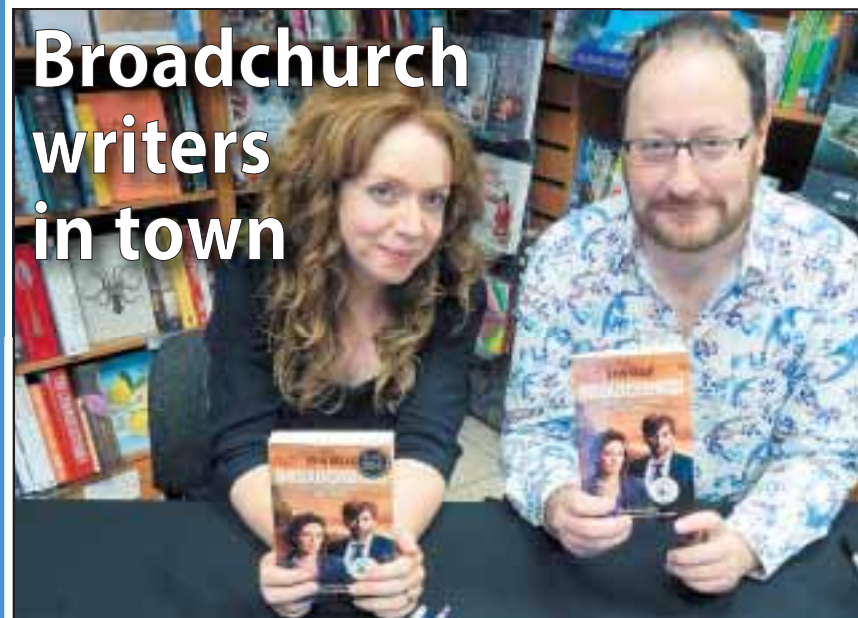

"In preparation, the WI ladies worked hard litter picking, the parish council maintained the public areas and the village hall committee, the parish church council and chapel committee all maintained outside areas – it was a real team effort."

"Everyone is thrilled to have won, we know we live in the best village in Dorset but it is nice for it to be confirmed."

The award was presented by Graham Colls, the Chief Executive of Magna Housing, and Councillor Bill Trite, chairman of Purbeck District Council to Jane Edwards and Iris Mair at an awards ceremony last week.

Other winners included Martin-stown for the 'Best Large Village' and Winterbourne Steepleton for the 'Best Hamlet'.

Broadchurch writers in town

BROADCHURCH creator Chris Chibnall and author of the novel which accompanies the series, Erin Kelly, drew in quite a crowd at Bridport Waterstones last weekend for a book signing.

The pair talked to the real residents of Broadchurch and signed copies of the new book for fans of the British drama.

The novel, which is based on ITV's BAFTA award winning hit series, promises never before seen material and a secret hint on what to anticipate in the second series.

Commenting on what readers can expect Mrs Kelly said: "The book is faithful to the television series but with a couple of extra minor characters and a deeper insight into the characters feelings."

"It features more of Beth Latimer's experiences and extra scenes in the police station, which were not shown in the last episode of series one."

"As well as a map of Broadchurch, there is also a secret hint about what will happen in the second series."

For those who did not watch the series, Mrs Kelly described the book as more than a typical crime story.

She said: "I would describe the story line as a community ripped apart, a detective story close to a psychological thriller. It is more than just 'whodunit' and the story is closely related to the place in which it is set."

When asked if another book could be in the pipeline after the second series has aired she said: "We would love to bring out another book, but I don't know yet, it is too early to say."

Golden Cap winter talks

THE Golden Cap Association's popular programme of winter events gets underway with a talk by former BBC senior music studio manager Campbell Hughes next week.

The talk, titled 'Life at the BBC', will be given at the United Church Hall in East Street on Monday (September 29th) at 7:30pm.

Mr Hughes studied music at the Royal School of Church Music, then left to join BBC Radio as a studio manager, later becoming a senior manager.

Cancer support

BRIDPORT clothes shop Smith & Smith is to hold a fundraising event in support of cancer charity Macmillan Cancer Support this week.

Staff at the West Street store will be serving up coffee and cakes from 10am on Friday (September 26th) and will also be dishing out prizes during a grand draw during the afternoon.

Other informative talks in the association's varied programme over the next few months will cover subjects from local wildlife and the RNLI to the international disaster relief charity ShelterBox.

Gordon Simmons, association vice chairman and honorary secretary, said: "The Golden Cap Association is a 500-strong local group of National Trust members and accredited volunteers who support the work of the trust in our area whilst also taking part in a full programme of social events."

"Any surplus accruing from its activities goes to help the work of the National Trust."

"Over the years, the association has donated over £100,000 to conservation and community projects administered by the National Trust in West Dorset."

All the talks are held in the United Church Hall and are open to members of the public, with an admission charge of £3.

BRIDPORT's very own town radio has proved a hit once again with residents urging organisers to make the week long station an annual event.

Bridport FM took to the airwaves last week from Monday 15th to Sunday, September 21st with help from around 200 volunteers.

The station aired a total of 84 hours of original material, rounding of the week on Sunday evening with a live broadcast of The Sidekicks in concert.

The radio station has grown in popularity with more and more people wanting to get involved with the successful project.

Kate Wilson, learning co-ordinator at the arts centre and in charge of the Bridport FM project, said she had been asked by many of the volunteers and residents if the radio station could be an annual event or even a permanent fixture.

She said: "Doing the week of Bridport FM was great, really good fun and there was some fantastic feedback. Many people want it to become an annual event."

"The listenership grew during the week and more people approached me during the week wanting to join in and be a part of one of the programmes."

"The finale on Sunday evening was great, going out on such a celebratory note was a great end to a real community project and a great start to the arts centre's 40th anniversary."

A meeting to determine the future of Bridport FM and a chance for residents and volunteers to voice their ideas about the radio station is hoping to go ahead within the next month but the date is yet to be confirmed.

There is also an exhibition of photographs documenting the process of the Bridport FM training programme and broadcast week in the arts centre, which will be there until October 4th.

Shows are still available to listen to on the Bridport Arts Centre website at www.bridport-arts.com

Charlie and Lee are ready to jump

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedial.co.uk

TWO members of staff at the George Hotel in West Bay are appealing for donations and sponsorship for a charity skydive.

Charlie Hagley, who works in the office and Lee Hutchings, a barman at the George Hotel, are raising money for the Make A Wish Foundation by jumping 15,000ft from an aeroplane on October 1st.

The charity grants wishes to children and young people aged between three and 17-years-old who suffer from life-threatening conditions or a terminal illness.

Explaining why the pair decided to do it, Miss Hagley said: "I

Lee Hutchings has previously done a parachute jump but is still feeling a mix of excitement and nerves.

Local line dancing group, Bridport Honkytonk Stompers, has already donated £100 to the pair and a collection bottle has been placed on the bar at the George Hotel.

Sponsorship forms are available from the George Hotel in West Bay and the Greyhound Inn at Beaminster.

Donations are also being accepted on their Just Giving page at www.justgiving.com/charlie-hagley wanted to do a parachute jump ages ago but it was a spur of the moment decision and Lee agreed to do it with me.

"We decided to link it with a charity so we hope to raise as much money as possible as it is for a really worthy cause."

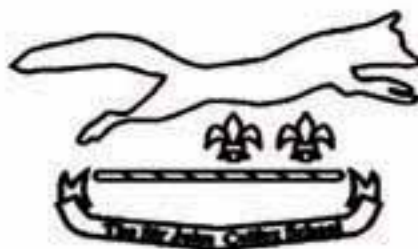

"I am definitely feeling nervous and excited but it is a lot nicer knowing that I have support and that I am doing the jump with a friend. I am either going to love it or hate it."

A book that finally tells the Dorsets' story

VETERANS from the Dorset Regiment will meet in Dorchester this weekend to complete the history of the regiment.

The Saturday, September 27th meeting at the TA Centre will mark the launch of the completion of the Regiment's history.

Until now the published histories, which begin in 1702, have stopped abruptly in 1939, but a new book has been written to complete the story.

By Trevor Bevins
trevorbevins@gmail.com

"They Couldn't Have Done Better" tells the story of the four Dorset battalions who fought in the Second World War and of the Regiment's post-war service in the years of Britain's withdrawal from empire, the Cold War and National Service.

This year marks three 70th anniversaries for the Regiment. In May 1944 the 2nd Dorsets won a bloody battle at Kohima, which proved the turning-point in the war in Burma; in June 1944 the 1st Dorsets were one of the first assault troops to land on the Normandy beaches and, despite their losses, captured all their objectives on D-Day; and in late September 1944, the 4th and 5th Dorsets fought near Arnhem and enabled some of the Airborne troops trapped north of the Neder Rijn to escape across the river. The 4th Dorsets, who sacrificed themselves to save their Airborne comrades, were the only non-Airborne unit to be awarded the Arnhem battle honour.

The book launch this weekend falls on the anniversary of the tragic end of the Arnhem battle and it will be attended by four Dorset Regiment veterans of the Second World War:

100-year-old Bill Chutter, fought in Malta, Sicily and Italy with the 1st Dorsets before landing with them in France on D-Day. In May 2014 he celebrated his own centenary.

Ron Beale and Harry Carter served in the 4th Battalion, which (beside the 5th) fought its way from the Normandy beach-head in June 1944 to Bremerhaven the following May.

The fourth is Cliff Lloyd of the 4th Dorsets. Wounded in Normandy in July 1944, he returned in September

VETERAN Bill Chutter (100). He will be among guests at a party to celebrate a new book about the Dorset Regiment this weekend to take part in the Arnhem operation. Crossing the river to help the Airborne troops fight their way out, he was captured and spent the rest of the war as a prisoner of the Germans.

Mr Lloyd has written a foreword for the Regiment's new book. So has Major-General Colin Shortis, the senior surviving Dorset.

The book's author is Christopher Jary said: "Most of the veterans attending the party are now in their late seventies and eighties and this is likely to be the last formal event for the Dorset Regiment.

After the war they served in the Regiment in Germany, Austria, Italy, Japan, Malaya, Hong Kong and Korea. They will all have much to remember when they meet to launch the Dorsets' new book. A book which finally tells their story."

Still time to claim flood support

HOUSEHOLDERS and businesses in West Dorset, Weymouth and Portland can still claim financial help from council-run flood support schemes.

The schemes were introduced with Government backing to help businesses and homeowners affected by flooding during the severe weather events last winter.

The various support schemes can help with clean-up costs, business rate or council tax relief as well as grants for measures to help resilience and resistance of properties and premises to future flood risk.

Eligibility criteria apply for the various schemes, such as flooding must have been internal and happened between December 1st 2013 and March 31st 2014.

The schemes have already been publicised, including at flood drop-in sessions, but the council is keen to make sure that everyone who may be able to claim does so.

Leader of West Dorset District Council Robert Gould said: "I would like to remind people that these flood support schemes are still open to applications.

"If your house or business was flooded last winter it's worth finding out if you are eligible to get help under one or other of the schemes."

Weymouth & Portland Brief holder for Environment and Sustainability Ian Roebuck said: "The severe weather caused a lot of damage last winter.

"With our partners, the borough council continues to be busy making sure sea defences are repaired, fit and ready for this winter.

"I want to make sure that those who experienced flooding inside their homes last winter takes advantage of the schemes to help make their properties more resilient to future flood events."

More information about the support schemes and general advice about protecting your home from flooding can be found at www.dorsetforyou.com/flooding.

Last bus back to Bridport at 7:15pm!

WITH news that the X31 evening service is being axed, the last bus from Dorchester to Bridport is at 7:15pm.

The deregulation of bus services has been an unmitigated disaster in itself, but the withdrawal of bus subsidies by Dorset County Council has also been a body blow to rural services.

The No 31 service originally ran from Weymouth to Axminster and was linked to rail stations. This allowed a visit to London and bus connections to the west

(i.e. Bridport, Axminster and Lyme Regis). On my estimation you would now have to catch the 4.30pm from Waterloo to catch the last 7:15pm bus back to Bridport and the west.

Recently the service 31 was axed from between Weymouth and Dorchester and a change from the No 10 at Dorchester was instigated. Then Martinstown was deleted from the route except one journey in each direction. This was apparently to make better connections to the railway station at Dorchester. Now evening services are being axed.

The First bus company obviously has a 'profit on all routes' policy. The word service has gone out the window and the public suffer again.

When customers lose their jobs because of public service cuts, something is wrong. Time to look again at bus subsidies and perhaps renationalisation!

BARRY THOMPSON, Dorchester and District Labour Party Chairman

Will we need a bypass to bypass the by-pass?

WITH work now underway on the transfer station and a date given of 2016 for work to commence on the house building at Vearse Farm, what will happen to our town?

There seems no concern whatsoever from our town council for future problems that these changes will make to our already overloaded road system both round and through town. Perhaps they all stay indoors during the summer months so think there is no problem already; I think heads in the sand or 'suck it and see' is more likely.

Although the town council voted against building work at Vearse Farm at an earlier public meeting, they have done nothing to try and stop this project in spite of the majority of Bridport residence opposing any such work.

WHEN WILL THE TOWN COUNCIL LISTEN TO THE PEOPLE OF BRIDPORT?

Perhaps another public meeting is called for?

Why not absorb WDDC into DCC?

WHAT could the 85 per cent Scottish turnout suggest for West Dorset locally, given possibly lesser knowledge of local issues/procedures here, and only 55 per cent voting in local elections?

In 2011 the ruling party here achieved only 45 per cent of votes cast, yet 67 per cent of seats.

Their leader simply hand-picks six colleagues for the executive cabinet-committee and their political party invariably passes their plans in council.

Despite Lehman's 2008 meltdown, this cabinet continued with a massive Dorchester shopping development plan, despite warnings, unanimous Dorchester Town Council opposition, and a 93 per cent vote against new offices by Dorchester's public voting in 2010 – ignored by WDDC.... (offices subsequently rated at the equivalent of only two out of four for value-for-money by auditors KPMG).

On Dorchester's town centre South and North Charles Street car parks, a new shopping development with adjacent new car-parking was planned.

Then disaster/incapacity. WDDC sequestered over one third of this scarce land, to build themselves new council offices.

They then lost £2million on their promised sales-value of old offices. And offered up-to £2million more towards the development, and up-to £2million more to move the church, etc.

Decidedly less-than-upfront information meant even councillors hadn't realised all the rest of Charles Street car-parking would have to close for the 37 months' construction period before replacement central parking arrived.

Development subsequently stalled/stunted/haunted by massively reduced space.

A 2013 Public Question on offices was disqualified before being put, supplementary questions banned, executive councillors won't debate interactively publicly.

Even WDDC's news-sheet to all residents – Community Link – has seemingly now dried-up. What a contrast with the openness of the Scottish Referendum.

Now we hear WDDC wants a coming-together with North Dorset. But were the 'owners' of WDDC (us!) ever asked if we wanted the middle tier of local government extended?

Why not instead absorb WDDC into DCC to achieve really efficient, integral local govt?

WDDC should certainly wait for changes from national government to local government following the Scottish referendum. Surely all Democrats (hopefully everyone) can agree the question could then be put to all West Dorset residents "Should West Dorset be absorbed into DCC?"

You will find that the service is jargon free, independent, confidential and individual to your needs. To be eligible you just need to be 60+ with an annual income of less than £20,000 p.a.

We deal with a huge range of personal tax problems. The more frequent problems our team encounter include PAYE coding issues, completing self-assessments and other forms, how to deal with an underpayment and guidance through retirement or bereavement. We can help you check that your tax is right, talk with HMRC and where necessary appeal or complain. We also provide tax awareness training to pensioner groups and other generalist advice services.

Our team of well-trained staff provide telephone advice from our Dorset base, but about one in five of those who approach us need to talk to someone face-to-face. It is here that our network of volunteer tax advisers comes into play. Where possible these face-to-face advice sessions take place during a tax "surgery" in a local CAB branch, Age UK (NI) or Age Concern. But if a client is disabled, mobility impaired or has transport difficulties then we arrange for the interview to take place in their own home.

We draw our volunteers from within the accounting and tax professions and from retired tax inspectors.

Clarondene

THERE has been so much wonderful activity in Lyme Regis and around this summer. Much of it, as usual, was inaccessible or unsuitably crowded for the fragile elderly, so we are very grateful for the terrific coverage in the 'View From' papers which get read over and over again. Why struggle over the sand in the wheelchair when you can enjoy all those pictures and relive the moment at Guitars on the Beach? The 3 Magazine Supplements of the summer have been terrific bonuses for us, and several of our residents have sight problems, so have loved being read to from it and seeing those big pictures. Imagine the article on Haunted Lyme, read like an Alfred Hitchcock late in the evening with the lights turned down! The 'audience' loved it!

Thanks, Carnival Organisers for letting us sneak into Holmbush so that Vi and Milly could see the Carnival take off with dressed-up grandchildren, Majorettes and so many Lyme folk who recognised and assisted them. A late night they are both still talking about.

Two other things we have thoroughly enjoyed this summer:

Rousden's World War 1 exhibition was truly of amazing quality. Margaret – who is nearly 98 so almost experienced it personally – and Cyril were able to reminisce and remember from so many items ranging from old cigarette packets & matchboxes to posters exhorting the populous to greater sacrifice and effort. Bim just loved the music and being amongst the crowd, especially when one elegant gentleman asked her for a dance! The entrance hall was a multisensory encounter of being in a battlefield bunker, with the objects, sounds, light effects and protective sacks of sand. Many thanks to the community for such a memorable event we will re-live in the winter months and beyond.

Now, the East Cliff walk! Well, apart from nowhere to park the accessible bus as always, it is the most wonderful development for the elderly of Lyme since I have moved here. At last we can push our wheelchairs along the sea-side without fear of hindrance or hazard and have that panoramic view over Lyme Bay at all hours and seasons. Well Done! to whoever planned a path the elderly in the community can enjoy, even if the accessibility is a bonus rather than a fore-thought! And as for the visitors who told me they thought it dangerous without lights – try Blackpool and leave our wonderful unspoilt vistas to us – we appreciate them!

Top tribute to rock legends

WALL OF FLOYD IN WEYMOUTH

THE Wall of Floyd will be playing Weymouth Pavilion on Friday, October 3rd at 7.30pm.

The nine piece Hampshire-based Pink Floyd tribute band formed five years ago out of their love of music and passion for Pink Floyd in particular.

The band members have diverse backgrounds and ages, but they all have the dedication needed to reproduce the music they love so accurately. They performed regularly at small local music venues to great acclaim and as word quickly spread, to packed houses every time. In early 2014 this prompted their decision to take their show on the road to a wider audience, and larger venues, and so the Division Bell UK tour was born.

Their commitment, skill and experience have enabled them to put together a two and a half hour show that displays the very best of Pink Floyd. From the early years of Syd Barrett that started Floyd on their amazing journey through albums such as Dark Side of the Moon and Wish You Were Here, and including the recently re-released Division Bell, all the iconic hits are here plus a few less well known numbers that when included in one show create a deeper and more varied example of the wonderful sound of Pink Floyd.

Their performance includes 'Wearing the Inside Out', 'Shine on You Crazy Diamond', 'Brick in The Wall', 'Money', 'Brain Damage' and a spine tingling vocal solo by Ashley Austin in 'The Great Gig in the Sky'. A couple of great songs from the Final Cut album are also included that are rarely played by other tribute bands.

Pink Floyd music appeals to all ages and attracts many thousands of new fans every year adding to its existing millions worldwide.

Amazing music and vocals, combined with a stunning light show, make this an evening to remember and an opportunity to experience a truly great part of British rock music.

Tickets are available now from the Weymouth Pavilion Box Office (www.weymouthpavilion.com or 01305 783225).

Najma Akhtar: The vocal wonder of world music comes to Dorchester

A Tour of Song and Poetry expressed through the Indian Ghazal and Western Folk

PREPARE to be mesmerised this September at Dorchester Arts with an intimate evening of song and poetry from Najma Akhtar, the renowned British singer and songwriter from Indian and Pakistani heritage. Having collaborated with many world-class artists, including Jimmy Page and Robert Plant, Basement Jaxx, and Philip Glass, Najma will present her vocal prowess through the romantic Urdu poetry of the Ghazal in song, exploring lyrics written by traditional and contemporary Sufi writers.

Additionally, in reflection of Najma's British nationality and heritage, the concert will incorporate a number of English and Irish traditional ballads and songs.

Having dominated the world music scene for the past two decades Najma brings with her a wealth of experience that still sounds as fresh and vibrant as when she first exploded onto the music scene.

Najma established herself as a pioneering vocalist during the late eighties with her widely acclaimed first album 'Qareeb', introducing jazz to the traditional repertoire of Ghazal (Urdu ballad). This album was hailed as a groundbreaking recording in the World Music scene and has since paved the way for many artists of Indian descent.

Using both the traditional & contemporary Indian style, Najma will be accompanied by harmonium, violin, bass, percussion and guitar. However, the emphasis of this unique concert is the voice, celebrating the Ghazal, the Ballad and stories of love. Having been described as "a heaven-sent gift" (Songlines), "immaculate" (The Guardian) and "enchanting and splendid" (All Music Guide) Najma's voice explores British and Indian roots, connecting vocal expressions through the rich musical landscape of the cultures that surround them.

Najma Akhtar

Najma's 2014 autumn tour is, incorporating dates throughout the South West, supported by Routes South West and Arts Council England and is aimed at a wider audience as it explores a bi-lingual territory that is highly unusual in the presentation of an Asian and European repertoire.

Najma Akhtar performs on Saturday, September 27th at Dorchester Arts Centre at 8pm - tickets are £10/£8 members and concessions. For more details and to book visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk or call 01305 266926.

The Queen's Knickers

A hilarious, witty and silly comedy for children

GET your knickers in a twist with a hilarious, witty and silly comedy for wise young children. The Queen's Knickers, based on the much-loved book by Nicholas Allen, will be staged at Bridport Arts Centre on Sunday, September 28th at 2pm.

Dilys, the Queen's maid, is the royal custodian of her Majesty's 'intimate apparel', otherwise known as the Queen's knickers. She guards HRH's smalls as if they were the crown jewels. She would be mortified if anyone got a glimpse of them.

But one day the knickers go missing, causing a national state of emergency and a diplomatic incident of catastrophic proportions.

A celebration of the garments we all wear, but never show, this children's classic is inventively told by two elastic actors.

It's all about knickers, but it won't be pants!

Tickets are £12, £11 Members, £10 Concessions, £7 Child, or £34 Family available online at www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204.

Accordion-led band 'Streetworks' at Bridport Jazz Cafe

ACCORDIONIST Karen Street's latest project 'Streetworks' will be playing at the Jazz Café in Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, October 3rd. The band features the amazingly creative talent of guitarist Mike Outram, Will Harris who is fast becoming the South West's most in-demand bassist and honey-toned saxophonist Andy Tweed. The music is melodic, influenced not only by jazz but with strong leanings to both Central European and South American styles, especially the tango.

The accordion is a truly amazing instrument with many colours and much to offer the jazz world. Karen continues to be in the vanguard of those accordionists giving the accordion a fresh voice in jazz.

Karen Street has produced three CDs under her own name all receiving very enthusiastic reviews. She has played alongside renowned UK musicians Mike Westbrook, Martin Taylor, Stan Sulzman and Tina May; other credits include Grace Jones, Martha Wainwright, Ute Lemper and Sir Willard White.

Mike Outram is one of the UK's foremost guitarists who is sought after as an impro-viser and for his ability to contribute a unique voice to any musical ensemble. He has toured internationally and appeared on over a hundred CDs for Universal, Sony, Candid, Blue Note records and others. He has been praised as 'world-class' by The Guardian.

Andy Tweed is one of the most accomplished saxophonists inhabiting that ground between contemporary classical and jazz making him the perfect choice for this project. A former member of highly successful saxophone quartet, Saxtet, who toured extensively throughout the world, he now plays with the Venn saxophone quartet based in Bristol and the Flotilla ensemble in London.

Will Harris has established himself as one of the most in-demand double bassists in the South West, having played with the likes of Bobby Wellins, Alan Barnes, Tina May and Anita Wardell.

Streetworks will perform at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, October 3rd at 8pm, tickets are £10, available by calling 01308 424204 or visit www.bridport-arts.com

Multi Story Theatre Company in Almost Heaven

IT'S over 13 years since Gill Nathanson from Multi Story Theatre Company met Niki McCretton on the Canadian fringe festival circuit. "We were in Winnipeg", remembers Gill, "I remember so clearly going to see Niki's one and being blown away by it - I can't believe it's 13 years ago". So it seems fitting that Gill will be performing at Bridport's Lyric Theatre, where Niki is Director, to perform with Multi Story Theatre Company in Almost Heaven, a play all about the ticking clock of time and the stories that stretch across the years to unite and, sometimes, divide us.

The play is set in a sunny garden, enveloped by birdsong, where a man and a woman swap stories. They share a past - something unspoken, unresolved, unrequited. They begin at the beginning, with flood myths from around the world but he has a specific story he needs to tell: Nimrod and the Tower of Babel. Time is running out for this man and between them they must construct their story before the day is done.

These two characters gently lead you on a journey that takes in ancient history, neuroscience and the power of language. But all journeys come to an end and when this one does it might just break your heart.

It's not the first journey to Bridport for Gill and her Multi Story associate Bill Buffery. They have both performed at Bridport Arts Centre with Orchard Theatre Company and, more recently, with their own company, Multi Story. In the year 2000 they set up multi story, to tell big stories in small spaces, stories that have taken the company all over the UK and also to places as far flung as South America, Canada and the Czech Republic. "We really do believe that the best stories are universal," explains Bill. Last year the company squeezed their hi-tech performance of their last production Every Mother's Son into the cafe area at Bridport Arts Centre. "We had such a great time", Buffery continues, "the Bridport audience was so warm and welcoming that we jumped at the chance to bring Almost Heaven to the Lyric".

"We've had such a fantastic reception to Almost Heaven wherever we've played it", says Gill. "It's a play that seems to engage people of all ages and particularly with those who are ready to take a look back at the journey they've made so far."

And, judging from the reviews Almost Heaven has already garnered, the Lyric audience is in for a treat. Suitable for over 16s, and there will be an optional post show discussion.

Multi Story Theatre Company in Almost Heaven perform at Bridport's Lyric Theatre on Saturday, September 27th at 8pm.

Tickets are £10 from Bridport Arts Centre: 01308 424204 / www.bridport-arts.com or on the door at the Lyric from 7:30pm the night of the show.

Stewards required at Allsop Gallery

DO you have an interest in the visual arts and a couple of hours a week to spare? Bridport Arts Centre's Exhibitions Assistant, Megan Dunford, is inviting people to contact her about volunteer stewarding roles.

The Allsop Gallery hosts a wide variety of art. Regular stewards have seen everything from knitted gardens to sculpture to large-scale paintings and everything in-between. It is especially interesting for people with an interest in visual arts as there are always like-minded artists or visitors to talk to.

Megan said "It is such a enjoyable role. When you go to the gallery you never know what will happen, you don't know who will walk through the door. If you're interested in art you will always have someone to chat to about the subject".

The Allsop Gallery is the only publically funded gallery in Dorset and our volunteers play an essential role in allowing it to stay open. This makes it possible for thousands of visitors to experience quality art for free.

The volunteer slots are two hours per session and the role involves tracking visitor numbers, greeting visitors with a warm welcome and keeping an eye on the artwork.

If you are interested in the role please contact galleries.stewards@bridport-arts.com or phone Megan on a Tuesday or Friday between 10am - 4pm on 01308 42424.

Square & Compass

A very relaxed, elegant wedding with very, very good food

THERE has been an inn at Windmill Hill for around 200 years and it is part of the fabric of the area. The Square and Compass is now a well-known hotel, renowned for excellent food. Owners, Chris and Janet Slow have been resident for 17+ years and in this time they have built up a reputation for very good food and drink. Run in a relaxed, informal manner, you can enjoy a drink, some food, or celebrate a special occasion in the Barn, a separate venue behind the Square and Compass.

The Barn

Set in its own spacious gardens, the Barn is completely separated from the Inn and Stables Hotel rooms and is a very popular venue for weddings. Full of rustic charm with heavy wooden tables, chairs and careful lighting, it is decorated with a rural theme and can hold up to 250 people.

The informal atmosphere that gives the Square and Compass its special charm extends to the Barn, allowing you to relax during your special occasion knowing that every detail has been planned exactly to your needs beforehand so the whole day runs seamlessly. We are absolutely committed to making your day as perfect as we possibly can.

The Barn's rustic appearance belies modern facilities. There is a dance area and stage with a powerful sound system and lighting set up. There is also a fully licensed bar, modern toilets and disabled access in all areas. The Barn has a civil license for weddings, with the large gardens surrounded by fields making a truly beautiful setting. We built the Barn using old-fashioned materials, specifically for weddings. We think it is the perfect venue for your special day.

The Barn is a little more than 5 minutes from Junction 25 of the M5 at Taunton and likewise from the A303 at Ilminster. Although set in pleasant rural surroundings, it is easily accessible with full facilities available for business meetings, exhibitions and corporate events.

The speciality of our weddings is that the whole day revolves around an exceptionally good quality, generous meal in the afternoon, prepared and cooked by a team of highly professional chefs led by Janet, one of the owners. 'We find that if the food is really good everything else slots into place' says Chris. In 2005 we demolished the old pub kitchens and invested £100,000 in a state of the art catering kitchen.

Lydia says, "I truly have loved making great use of my education which includes an honours Degree in Photography from Plymouth University as well as having gained a qualifying examination from the British Institute of Professional Photographers. I enjoy my work to the fullest and feel that nothing makes a better photographer than one who puts her heart and soul into every click of the camera."

As a result of Willow Photographic Studio being in such demand for all types of photography shoots as well as weddings, Lydia has taken on two brilliant additional photographers, Lameze Stout and David Maxwell (Maxy). They both share the same fervour and passion for photography as Lydia does, and together they make a team who put in 100% effort, kindness, and value into every job they do. ## West of England Laser Centre

Moles, sunspots and other blemishes

THE West of England Laser Centre situated at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital, can treat these plus other skin conditions by laser.

Sun spots and freckles – sometimes known as 'liver' or 'age' spots – exist where the body collects more pigment, called melanin. For removal of moles, short bursts of high laser light are applied, thus removing precise layers of superficial skin layer by layer until the lesion is significantly diminished/no longer visible. The precision of modern-day lasers minimises risks of scarring – unlike the older version lasers of the past.

Also available is laser removal of: facial thread veins, warts, veruccas, "blood spots", excess hair and tattoos. In addition various injection treatments are used to smooth away fine facial lines and/or to add volume and definition, eg. to the lips. Baggy eyelid problems can also be solved at the centre by a minor surgical procedure.

Our website at www.welc.co.uk provides details on all our treatments. For further information or to book a consultation please telephone 01823 331773 or e-mail us at lasercentre@lineone.net.

Styles and trends: lace wedding dresses

LACE is an eternally beautiful material for wedding dresses, and it's a style that has lasted for centuries in the fashion world. It's a favourite amongst designers worldwide, its reputation huge. And it's not hard to see why!

Wedding Dress Fashion Trends

Lace seems to be everywhere, and the biggest designers are using it all over the world. They have been for years! Its regard may in part be due to the fine craftsmanship that is handmade lace, but the popularity of the white lace wedding dress is often attributed to Queen Victoria's marriage to Prince Albert in her lace-trimmed gown, train, and veil. Celebrities really help to push the reputation of this fine material—just look at Grace Kelly, whose wedding dress is famed in the fashion world. Now lace is everywhere, from bridalwear to wedding decoration.

Lace features in many of the trends for next year, most prominently with the likes of nude lace. The design acts as a bit of an optical illusion that may, for some, seem a little bit racy. But it gives some absolutely beautiful effects, and a look like that of old vintage.

Being a very traditional, flattering material, lace is wonderful for a vintage or art deco wedding. It really adds a pretty elegance to the wearer, and with the ornate designs available right across the material, you can get any number of beautiful finishes to the dress. Open backs seem to be a big trend for next year, and lace can really set off that effect. Also bohemian gowns and tea length dresses really run with lace, giving some of the most stunning designs.

Choosing the Right Material

If you're worried a full-lace wedding dress isn't for you however, don't fret! You can still get that spark of vintage with lace sleeves, shoes, a cloak, jacket or bolero, or a belt, veil or a hairpiece. Perhaps even a handkerchief or a pair of gloves? Lace is a very flexible material to work with; with it, you can get any number of styles: chic or floaty, grand or unadorned. You may even consider some appliqué work, where bits of lace are stitched by hand to parts of the dress in order to accent it. Don't be afraid to try out different colours either—ivory lace on a white dress, or white on pale pink or blue-silver? Brides are no longer going after the classic white wedding. Feel free to shake it up!

Choose your lace carefully, as it can come in many forms and give any number of stunning effects—some is denser and heavier with deep patterns, some is lighter and softer, its design delicate. And then there is even lace decorated with beads and sequins, crystals, gems and pearls, and these really echo the fashion of the Roaring Twenties or the Victorian era. Research thoroughly by perhaps keeping a scrapbook of the materials you like, and the dress designs you love, and be careful when it comes to buying your dress/accessories. There are many cheap knock-offs in the world so it's advised that you seek professional advice on what to look for when buying your items. Of course, not all of the cheaper lace is a bad thing, for when it's done right it can really suit a bride on a budget and still look magnificent.

Fiona Neylan Millinery

MILLINERY has been in my family since 1917, originating with my Grandmother, Gladys Falloon, and my Mother, Elaine Reid and my Aunt, Sheila Ferris. My Grandmother sailed from Ireland in 1917 to Liverpool, age 17, to train as a Milliner.

I am the third generation of Milliners in my family, and whilst growing up, in Oxfordshire, I learned a lot about hats and headwear from these family members. My Grandmother, had a shop in High Wycombe in the 1930's and '40's, and then a shop in Henley-on-Thames, which my Mother and Aunt mainly ran. Being by the River Thames, ladies would come and buy hats for Henley Royal Regatta, and for Ascot, nearby and also for weddings and other occasion wear. Over the years I learned a lot of useful tips about hats. We often went to the Henley Regatta and it was a great day out of course, and My mother would often help me find a hat from the shop and then we'd add something to it or adapt it in some way to personalise it.

After A' levels and a gap year, I went to Cheltenham Art College, and did a Foundation course and a Degree in Sculpture, Fine Art, followed by a Steiner Education course. I hadn't thought about going into Millinery yet. It wasn't until some years later, after I'd had children that my interest in hats was re-kindled. After finding a box of beautiful vintage fur felt hat hoods (hat material before it is shaped) from the Henley shop, after Mum had retired, I decided to find a short course on Traditional fur felt hat blocking techniques. I found the perfect course for me ran by Tina Guintini from London, who was tutoring in Frome, Somerset at the time. I learned traditional steaming and blocking techniques and how to shape and make a hat from start to finish.

I now have a Hat Studio in the Vintage Quarter in St Michael's Trading Estate, (Studio 12), where I design and make hats in felt, fur felt, wool, cashmere, straw and sinamay and some bridal and Occasion headwear. Each hat is individually styled and decorated.

I also up-cycle some hats to revive them if they are a little tired. I have some specially selected hats and accessories of quality. Design to add to my collection. The accessories tend to be shawls and scarves, and some Fair-trade Baskets and Parasols, to protect your hat from the weather, rain or shine!!

And to complement your look, I also have Botanical, Natural and Organic skincare and make-up that is all Pure, Safe and Beneficial, and Nutritionals to enhance health and beauty from within.

Come and see me in my Hat Studio at Unit 10, Studio 12, St Michael's Trading Estate, Bridport, DT6 3RR- Wed, Fri and Sat until 4 pm mostly or call on 07905999437 or e-mail: hats@fionaneylan.co.uk to make an appointment.

Wedding nails are the perfect complement to your bridal look...You've got the ring, the veil and the bouquet, now all you need are picture-perfect hands

The nail shape

MAKE sure that your nails are groomed from the minute you get engaged. Once you are engaged, you want to be careful not to compete with your engagement ring in any pictures, so it's best to keep the nails short and round.

The nail shades

Soft pinks and nude beige shades look chic and subtle. Try finding a shade that is closest to your skin tone ensures the polish won't compete with your beautiful engagement and wedding rings in pictures.

The longevity

You can get the most of your manicure when you apply very thin coats, letting the polish dry in between each layer so the solvents evaporate, it will wear better and last longer. Waiting at least a minute or two between each coat is recommended.

TOP CLASS THEATRE COMES TO DORCHESTER THIS AUTUMN

In celebration of its 30th birthday, Dorchester Arts launches its autumn season of top class theatre this weekend

THIS spectacular season of drama supported by Batten Solicitors, starts this Friday, September 26th with John Steinbeck's novella The Pearl, aptly timed to coincide with the launch of Dorchester Arts 30th anniversary. Expect superb visual inventiveness and playful theatricality from the highly acclaimed Dumbshow Theatre as they explore the allure of wealth, the confines of class, and the redemptive power of love in this timeless fable.

There are also some special treats for the whole family to enjoy. Hilarious comedy comes to Dorchester Corn Exchange on Saturday, September 27th with the much-celebrated children's show The Queen's Knickers, presented by the Southbank Centre and the egg theatre, Bath. This spectacular sell-out show was a huge hit in London and is now making its way to Dorset's county town for more frilly fun and frolics.

October continues with a feast of top class theatre starting with the ingenious Lyme Regis based Shanty Theatre Company who will be performing their impressive adaptation of The Story Giant, from the legendary Liverpool author and poet Brian Patten on Wednesday, October 1st at the Corn Exchange. Join the gang at the as they dash through story explosion after turbulent tale in this adventure to find the last story on earth.

A gripping new play presented by award-winning theatre company AsOne, also comes to Dorchester's Corn Exchange on Wednesday, October 8th. In commemoration of the WW1 centenary year this new production follows five stories of soldiers and families 100 years apart, rich with fascinating true accounts retold through experienced creative talent. Interweaving newly gathered original testimony theatrically delivered along with live music Passion is poignant, funny and bravely honest, revealing how the ravages of war ripple down the generations.

Later in the month the hugely witty Living Spit Theatre Company return with another comedy play loosely based on historical fact with Elizabeth I - Virgin on the Ridiculous on Friday 24th October at Dorchester Arts Centre. The year is 1558. England. A country divided by religion and politics, teetering on the brink of civil war. The hopes of the nation lie with one woman.

Fast-forward a few hundred years to 2014.

Elizabeth 1st: Virgin on the Ridiculous

England. A country divided by those who enjoy plays featuring men in dresses and those who don't. The hopes of the nation lie with two Bristolian actors. Packed full of live original music, silly songs, smutty shenanigans, perfunctory props, and hysterically historical horseplay, this play promises to provide a poorly researched lesson in Tudor history that you'll never forget. This production is also showing at Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis.

Acclaimed theatre company Forest Forge

Forest Forge's Woman of Flowers

embark on a UK tour this autumn with the world premiere of a brand new play – Kaite O'Reilly's Woman of Flowers, an innovative retelling of an ancient Welsh story from The Mabinogion, and will be performed at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Saturday, October 25th. Rose cannot remember what came before the house at the edge of the isolated forest. Gwynne says he conjured her out of the flowers, but she's not so sure. She has played the part of the perfect farmer's wife for Lewis, who is kept firmly in place by his uncle Gwynne, and accepted her lonely existence. Then a stranger is seen in the forest. To what lengths will she go to escape the life chosen for her? This is an accessible performance with theatricalised sign and subtitles throughout and features live music, dance, and video. As part of the UK tour this can also be seen at Bridport Arts Centre.

To view the full line-up you can pick up the autumn brochure at various outlets in and around Dorchester, or visit Dorchester Arts website. To book visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk or call Box Office 01305 266926 or at Dorchester TIC.

Local young Soprano, Chloe Stratta, to sing with English Opera Ensemble

FROM Charmouth Primary School to a promising future in Opera - 22 Year old Chloe Stratta will sing the role of the shepherd who heralds the coming of the fatal dawn in Act 3, with the English Opera Ensemble in the forthcoming production of TOSCA, which is being produced by STAG (Shute Theatre and Arts Guild) in Kilmington Church next month. The young soprano will be singing and supporting a dazzling cast of professional singers including Anna Gregory, Dominic Barrand and Michael Bracegirdle, opera stars who's past performances have graced the stages of the Royal Opera House and the Royal Festival Hall.

Chloe graduated from the University of Manchester in July 2013 with a first class bachelor of music degree. She currently studies as a soprano under Ryland Davies and Deborah Rees. During her time in Manchester, Chloe was involved in many concerts as member of the University Chorus, and the University's prestigious chamber choir, with whom she toured to Milan. In July 2014, Chloe sung in the Dorset Opera Chorus for their 40th anniversary productions of Verdi's Aida and Beethoven's Fidelio. Her solo concert work includes Fauré's Requiem, in Exeter Cathedral, Haydn's Creation Mass with Lyme Bay Chorale, and Haydn's Mass in the Time of War, with Sidmouth Choral society, as well as recital work. She looks forward to returning to sing for these groups this Autumn. Chloe grew up in Lyme Regis, and attended Colyton Grammar School, singing in the school choir and chamber choir, directed by David House. She received singing lessons from Brian Manners.

Volvo Cars Reveals The All-New Volvo XC90 R-Design

▲ The all-new Volvo XC90 R-Design

VOLVO Cars has released the first images of the R-Design version of the all new XC90, aimed at buyers looking for a head-turner that radiates a truly sporty and dynamic look.

"R-Design is created for people with a passion for things that add spice to life," said Alain Visser, Senior Vice President, Marketing, Sales and Customer Service of Volvo Car Group. "It appeals to customers that love active driving and a personal, expressive design. Every single R-Design detail is designed to contribute to the individualistic and refined expression these customers desire."

The visual promise of a dynamic ride is confirmed by the driver-centric interior featuring R-Design Contour sports seats in Nubuck and perforated leather. A choice of Drive-E powertrains offering up to 400 hp and the completely new XC90 chassis ensure an agile driving experience.

The release of the R-Design follows Volvo's release of 1,927 individually numbered black First Edition XC90's which were offered for sale exclusively online and sold out in 47 hours.

Distinctive R-Design detailing

The R-Design exterior includes a number of distinguishing details, such as grille, front spoiler, silk metal window surround, integrated dual exhausts, integrated silver roof rails and silver matt mirror covers. 20-inch R-Design alloy wheels complete the stylish, dynamic look.

Inside, gearshift paddles, plus the Contour sports seats and perforated leather steering wheel and gearshift knob are accompanied by special R-Design details, such as sports seats, pedals, floor mats and illuminated tread plates. The driver also gets an exclusive R-Design leather key remote control.

Tablet-like touch screen

The tablet-like touch screen in the centre and a 12.3-inch fully graphical driver display are of course included in the R-Design. The driver display also features a unique R-Design theme. The heart of the all-new in-car control is virtually button free and represents an entirely new way for drivers to operate their car and access a range of Internet and cloud based products and services.

New trim level strategy

The core of the new XC90 range will be the Momentum model. Above this sits two separate branches – for a sports-inspired look and feel, the R-Design offers exclusive features and design detailing. Meanwhile, for an elegant look and an even more luxurious experience, customers can opt for the richly equipped Inscription model.

"In principle, we have replaced the previous top level with the Inscription and R-Design versions. Both of them feature an elevated content, carefully chosen to emphasise each of their distinctive individual personalities," said Alain Visser.

Peugeot Quartz Concept: An SUV for the Future

THE PEUGEOT QUARTZ Concept unveils a new vision for the Crossover segment at the 2014 Paris Motor Show. This next generation SUV blends dazzling design with innovative materials and a powerful Hybrid drivetrain to create the ultimate premium family car experience.

"With the EXALT and QUARTZ Concepts, the Brand is showcasing its vision of the high-end automotive market. PEUGEOT is committed to developing exclusive concepts for its customers through outstanding design, innovative materials and unparalleled sensations."

Maxime Picat, PEUGEOT Brand Chief Executive Officer

An ultra-athletic crossover

The strong, powerful and sporty style of the PEUGEOT QUARTZ combines the body of an SUV with the cabin of a saloon. Sleek lines convey a dynamic feel that's further accentuated by short overhangs and the dramatic 23-inch wheels sitting inside generously rounded wheel arches. At 4.5m long and 2.06m wide, the QUARTZ has an athletic stance on the road that's further emphasised by its long bonnet and louvers that help improve airflow to the engine.

The lighting system features LED units for improved efficiency. As with all new PEUGEOTs, the lion badge stands in the centre of the grille. But on the QUARTZ it's brought to life by a chequered pattern that shifts depending on the angle you view it from. A glass roof flows towards the rear wings and incorporates two spoilers to further enhance its aerodynamic design. These are aligned with the Coupe Franche separator between the two QUARTZ finishes: mineral grey at the front, inspired by rock crystal, and matt black for the rear wings, offset by occasional splashes of red.

Wheel spokes have been kept to a minimum thanks to the strength of the materials and they're covered with composite flaps. These optimise aerodynamic flow and help cool the brakes to ensure improved heat resistance.

"The PEUGEOT QUARTZ Concept is the marriage in a single form that embraces the lower aspects of an SUV with the upper features of a saloon. The styling reflects the function of each part. The QUARTZ's sculpted body and innovative materials pack a punch while ensuring dynamic efficiency."

Matthias Hossann, PEUGEOT QUARTZ Design Manager

The cabin showcases innovative, efficient materials

The QUARTZ is based on the same EMP2 platform that underpins the new 308. The composite structure and bonded panels save weight but bring exceptional stiffness. This enabled PEUGEOT's engineers to remove the central B pillar and create scissor doors. A retractable step further eases access.

Basalt features strongly in the centre console. This strong but light material is formed when magma is quickly cooled once it comes in contact with the elements. It has the same properties the world over, making sourcing much easier.

The QUARTZ Concept is the first-ever vehicle to employ digitally woven textile. This innovative process can create large and complex components that can be used as soon as they come off the machine. No cutting is required meaning no waste. The textile is woven with polyester fibre from recycled plastic water bottles.

To create a sportier feel, the floor pan, sides and roof are trimmed in black leather, with contact points such as seat cushions and backs in tawny leather. To complete the look, the door frames are milled from a block of composite material. A red hue is used to fill the grooves left by the machine.

"The QUARTZ Concept has a contrasting interior and exterior. The cabin is designed to convey an enticing sense through its sophistication and refinement. Yet the overall feel is undeniably sporty, with an i-Cockpit dedicated to the driver's every need."

Sébastien Floutier, PEUGEOT QUARTZ Colour and Trim Designer

Six-hit Pymore off the mark - Head's up! Beaminster on top in derby

D & E DIVISION THREE

LYME REGIS 2 HENRY'S CRONIES 5
LYME Regis' unbeaten run came to a spectacular halt as they conceded three late goals at the Davey Fort on Saturday.

Goals from Matt West and Tiernan West saw the Cronies move confidently into a 2-0 lead inside the opening quarter before an own goal gave Lyme hope.

That's how it stayed until the 80th minute when substitute Julien Simier pounced on a half chance to volley home from seven yards out.

But the visitors responded almost immediately with Liam Carey capitalising on three successive one-on-one opportunities to take all three points back to their Exeter home.

Afterwards Lyme manager Tim Edwards wasn't too downbeat, he said: "When we got back to 2-2 I could only envisage one winner and expected us to go on and take all three points.

"But we went gung-ho too soon. Lee Cleal didn't get a call and got caught in possession on the centre-spot and their striker just burst through the middle and beat Higgsy in a one-on-one.

"I couldn't believe it when the same player (Carey) then repeated the feat twice more in as many minutes.

"We could and should have won the game. I'm looking for us to bounce back straight away down at Axmouth on Saturday.

gins crossed expertly for Greg Channing, a recent capture from Chard Town, to head home on his return to the Rainbows.

The lead was doubled when scorer turned provider as Channing dinked a pinpoint cross to the waiting Josh Baker who made no mistake.

Lyme were then forced into a reshuffle just after the half-hour with young defender Kingsley Wellman going down with cramp having turned out for Dorchester Town under 18s on Saturday morning.

Lyme pulled a goal back when Ally Rattenbury bent home a trademark free-kick that bounced beyond the dive of Adam Herring in the Rainbows goal.

Herring had earlier done well to deny Rhys Evans with a superb finger-tip save at full stretch.

DIVISION ONE

FARWAY UTD 3 PYMORE 6

FIRST-half doubles from Alex Goodrick and 16-year-old Fred Parsons put Pymore on their way to a relatively comfortable win at Eastlee Park and ended an eight-game winless run.

Farway, like Pymore, struggling after a poor start to the season, pulled one back after the break only for Phil Ackerman to restore the four-goal cushion.

Back came the hosts with a brace of goals before James Pitcher rounded off the scoring for Pymore.

Liam Rogers (2) and Billy Reed netted for Farway.

FORTON RANGERS 1 NETHERBURY 1

NETHERBURY left it until the 93rd to rescue a deserved point at Forton.

The Ambers got into their stride early on and created several good chances but the Forton custodian was on top form and made a finger tip save to deny Mark Cuff, who also should have done better with a header from a corner.

Then, after a quick counter attack, the Keeper made an excellent one-on-one save to deny Chris Symes after a first time cross from John Kingston.

Half time seemed to come at the wrong time for the Ambers, as they didn't play as well after the break.

The home team gained confidence as the score remained 0-0 and took the lead when player-manager Andy Stephenson crashed home a free-kick from 20-yards in the 83rd minute.

The Ambers mounted a late fightback and in injury time Tom Franklin floated in a dangerous free-kick, which Zack Hawker nodded in from close range.

In game where his team had dominated and created a number of good goal scoring chances Manager Andy Loudon was in the end relieved to salvage something from the match, he said: "We played well enough to get all three points and could of scored at least three, but the players deserve massive credit for never giving up and we kept going and got a point out of it." He picked out the returning Tom Franklin as his MOM.

LYME BANTAMS 1 CHARD UTD 1

LYME Bantams came from behind to continue their promising start to the new season by holding a Chard United outfit that has aspirations for a promotion push.

Wilf Gosden put the visitors ahead but Shaun Stewart levelled soon after and that's how it stayed.

◆ POINT MADE: Shaun Stewart scored Lyme Bantams' goal in the 1-1 draw with Chard United.

Bantams' joint-manager Darren Poole told View Sports: "They (Chard) were a good side but the draw was a fair result.

"We put in a good performance throughout the team but the back three of Malc Darby, Fred Etherington and Adam Clarke, in his first performance of the season, were superb."

Poole also had a mention for 16-year-old keeper Toby Fowler who made a magnificent double save to deny the prolific Stuart Packer.

DIVISION TWO

CHARMOUTH 4 ILMINSTER A 0

A FIRST clean sheet of the season helped Charmouth to a well-deserved victory over already-struggling Iminster Town A.

A first-half double from in-form Elliott Gillings was no more than the Robins' efforts warranted at half-time.

It was then the turn of striker Dan Rendell who also bagged a quickfire double to make the game more than safe.

"We should have had a load more - but credit to their (Iminster) keeper, he made some fine saves," said Charmouth manager Paul Grinter.

THORNCOMBE 2 BEAMINSTER RES 1

A RUSS Oldbury strike was all that Beaminster Reserves had to show from their short trip to Horseshoe Lane as goals from Lee Fisher and Matt Shattock earned Thorncombe all three points.

WAYTOWN HOUNDS P UPLYME P

A LACK of players meant Waytown Hounds were forced to call off the scheduled visit of Uplyme at 10.30am on Saturday morning.

DIVISION FOUR

UPLYME RES 7 CHARD RANG RES 2

TWO goals from George Best failed to knock a confident Uplyme Reserves team out of their stride at Venlake on Saturday.

The Chard youngster put Rangers ahead inside 15 seconds. The Swallows were soon level but Best nodded home a second to restored the visitors' slender lead.

But from here it was all Uplyme who struck twice to lead 3-2 at half-time.

Four unanswered second-half goals saw Stuart Wooster's side ease to victory.

"The Chard manager said they couldn't cope with our fitness and movement," said Wooster who picked out Dave Lyon as his MoM after a composed performance in central midfield.

Niall Waterhouse (2), Harry Thresher (2), Brandon Bryant, Brett James and Lyon netted the magnificent seven for the hosts.

Lyme Regis Bowls

WITH PAUL MOFFITT

Bowls season drawing to a close

AFTER last week's finals weekend this week was limited to one friendly, the men's end of season roll-up and supper and finally the annual gents v ladies. Some of the ladies looked mysteriously familiar but, usually in male guise!

The friendly against SEATON was lost by 111-143.

Scores - Lyme 111 Seaton 143; A Foster, N

Solomon, G Clode, R Legg 15-32; V Cozens, M Heneghan, A Nabarro, K Clissold 17-31; B Downes, B Smith, S Wood, B Parsons 23-19; P Ward, P Stephens, T Payne, B Rattenbury 27-13; C Clissold, J Kesterton, C Bell, E Skeemer 14-23; K Faragher, B Turpin, R McLennan, D Wood 16-25.

The men's roll-up was followed by supper, as ever put on by Sue Wood and her helpers.

The ladies who were responsible for providing the refreshments after the league games all season, were presented with gifts by Judith Moffitt (championship), Jan Parsons (Division One and Sue Wood (Division Two) the captains of the three league teams.

Double for Lyme Golfers

The Senior Section had a particularly good week winning both of their friendly matches writes Matt Searle.

They had a resounding four games to two win against Dorset Golf & Country Club which was followed up by a closer four and a half to three and a half victory over Exeter Golf Club.

Last week also saw the inaugural competition in memory of the late Max Thorner.

The roll-up that he ran invited guests to play alongside members in a shot-gun start.

Over 80 golfers took part after which all sat down to a meal together where the winning pair of Alan Woodbridge and Neil Thomas were presented with the trophy.

Walking football! relive your youth

HAVING retired from playing competitive football, usually because you are now too old and slow, how often have you, when watching a game from the touchline or on television, wished you could be on the pitch and involved.

For years people have been saying to you don't let the brain make promises your body can't keep.

Well now you can with walking football, which allows the older generation to once again be actively involved with the game they love, on the pitch.

With no running allowed, in fact you will be penalised if you run, the game is designed to help people keep an active lifestyle despite their age.

The risk of any serious injury is diminished by the fact it is also a non-contact sport, and is based on 5-a-side rules.

The pitch is no bigger than half size with smaller goals, and a size four football.

Former Netherbury player Dave Symonds is looking to form a group to play on a regular basis, and is asking for people to contact him that might be interested.

The games will be played at the current Ambers pitch on a day to be decided by those wishing to partake.

"I thought it might be a good way for many of us return to our youth but at a slower pace.

"I was thinking maybe a Friday or Sunday morning might appeal, but would like to hear from anybody interested."

If you would like regular exercise at a more sedate pace then you can ring Dave on 01308 862025 or 07779313121.

♦ The walking football idea, which is promoted by adverts on sky tv, is certainly catching on with teams also set to be raised at Lyme Regis and Beer Albion Football clubs.

Bees news

Senior pleased with Bees best to date

Bridport 3 Shepton Mallett 2
Toolstation Premier – att: 83

BRIDPORT fought back last Tuesday evening to take three points in what manager Trevor Senior described as their best performance of the season to date.

The Bees had stung their visitors with a goal inside the first minute when Jamie Symes scored, converting Warren Byerley's cross after he had been put through by Adam Symes.

However, Adam Symes turned from provider to sinner when he conceded a spot kick on 18 minutes and the victim Tyson Pollard, picked himself up to fire the spot kick past Ashley Weeks.

Shepton then took the lead on 35 minutes when Weeks spilled an angled shot-come-cross to the near post by Dave Thorne, and Dave Stone nipped in to knock the ball in from close range.

However parity was restored immediately as straight from the kick-off Tom Richardson headed home Dan Wise's cross.

Bridport's winner came six minutes after the restart when Chris Clarke lashed the ball home after the Mallett defence failed to clear a corner.

Keeper Steve Phillips then denied Byerley with a great save to stop the Bees extending their lead.

Senior said: "We played really well, probably the best we have played for 90 minutes all season.

"It was a good all-round performance in which we defended well and Tom and Warren up front worked hard.

"We could have been two or three up before they scored, but we fought back well after going behind to claim three good points."

Townsend concerned by lack of desire

Bridport Reserves 1
Shaftesbury Town 2

BRIDPORT Reserves inconsistency showed once again leaving manager Robin Townsend frustrated and not for the first time.

The Bees showed they have the ability after a stunning performance against Weymouth Reserves recently.

But lack of commitment to training and a desire on the field saw them go down again against a side they should have beaten.

Whilst the Bees boss accepts that as the back up to the first team, the personnel are going to change almost weekly, and that he will never have a settled side.

However, he feels that nothing will change because it is the same squad of players that have been around for a while, and old habits die-hard.

Both goals conceded were as a result of errors. The first came after poor defending from a corner on 35 minutes when Rob Froud reacted quickest to a header to score.

The second was the result of a lack of desire by certain players to close people down after losing the ball.

As a result Jason Beale had time to control the ball and pick his spot with a 25-yard shot that flew past the unsighted Jamie Fry who had no time to react.

In between Ben Clarke scored an exquisite goal just after the hour to equalise, beating four players in a mazy run before stroking the ball home.

Townsend said: "We were the better side and should have won.

"It is annoying after playing well but only taking a point against top teams like Portland United and Parley Sports and then losing, with all due with respect, to teams like Wareham, Merley Cobham and Shaftesbury.

However, if we do not have the desire to put our bodies on the line like other sides or close sides down then we are going to pay for it.

"If players do not train then that is going to catch up with them on the field. It's not their ability; it's the lack of fitness and desire from some of the players that needs to change."

Dorset Premier League news

WEYMOUTH RESERVES 3
MERLEY SPORTS 4

MERLEY scored twice in the last five minutes to seal the points after coming from behind three times.

Mark Ford gave the Terras the lead in the eighth minute but Aaron Atkinson equalised for the visitors seven minutes later. Sean Zima restored the hosts lead ten minutes before the break, but the lead didn't last long as Grant Cormack made it 2-2 in the 39th minute.

With 17 minutes left Ford scored his second to give the Terras the lead again only for Stuart Cannie to level with four minutes left.

Then, in a dramatic finish, Atkinson scored his second to seal a superb win for the visitors.

BLANDFORD UNITED 4
PORTLAND UNITED 4 AET
(Portland won 4-2 on pens)

League positions went out of the window as bottom placed Blandford took Portland all the way in this pulsating cup-tie.

Paul Ford opened for the Royals in the sixth minute. Ross Doidge equalised for the visitors only for Ford to restore the lead in the 25th minute.

Blandford gifted the Islanders a second equaliser on 41 minutes courtesy of an own goal to leave it all square at the break.

Portland finally got their noses in front through Adam Linaker's strike in the 71st minute, but the hosts refused to lie down and got themselves level through Rob Manson in the final minute to take the game into extra-time.

Ford completed his hat-trick to put the hosts back in front in the 106th minute only for Ashley Smith to equalise taking the game into penalties.

Blandford missed two of their first three and with Portland converting all theirs, they progressed, to the first round of the League Cup.

Father and son team up to take title

THIS year's West Bay Sea Angling Club autumn open boat match was fished in perfect conditions with light winds and a good tide.

The fishing in Lyme Bay has been very poor all summer so competitors were hoping for some better fish this time around.

This competition was fished as a team match, with the average score of the team counting towards prizes.

Twenty anglers, split into teams of two or three, set off for the day and returned with some nice fish including, bass, black bream, gurnard, pollock, plaice, mackerel and a surprise john dory.

Team Miss Grace consisting of father and son Rod and James Barr took first place with an average percentage of 138 per cent; both anglers weighing in a black bream and a red gurnard each, with Rod's red gurnard a specimen of 101 per cent, the best of the day.

Team Wahoo comprising Graham Stephenson, Rob Stephenson and Steve Chambers took second place; scoring an average of 118 per cent which included some nice bream, bass and pollack.

Brian Moss, Jack Wood and Darren Herbert (Team Pilchard) took third with an average of 109 per cent; Moss catching a cracking mackerel of 885g and Wood following with a plaice of 1600g.

Full result: 1st: Team Miss Grace 138 per cent; 2nd Team: Wahoo 118; 3rd: Team Pilchard 109; 4th: Team Seamouse 73; 5th: Team One Eyed Wonder 67; 6th: Team Sharon & Tracey 57, Most species: Rod Barr; 3 species on tie break, Round fish pool: Rod Barr; red gurnard 101 per cent, Flat fish pool: Jack Wood; plaice 78 per cent.

WITH ADRIAN EVERITT

Blues feast after last week's famine

Bridport 76 North Dorset 3rd 13
AFTER last week's famine when Bridport narrowly beat New Milton 2nd's 6-5, this week it was a feast as the Blues ran in 12 tries, eight converted, past a hard working, but outclassed North Dorset 3rds.

North Dorset replied with two unconverted tries and a penalty to make the final score a breathless 76-13.

Bridport were in the points within four minutes, with a move that characterised the rest of the game; Rory Greening scoring and converting after some sustained pressure and excellent ball handling. He went on to add two more tries and seven more conversions.

Scrum-half Oliver Everitt added a second, finding space and taking out three defenders on the way to the line, en route to claiming four excellent tries. He and No 8, Mike Pibworth, combined very effectively throughout the game, the latter constantly creating opportunities from which others prospered.

success from set pieces

There were two fleet footed tries for captain Dave Cutting, a smart pick up and score from Pete Phillips, a text book line out and drive, put down by Ayo Fraser and a storming run to the line from Callum Barnes.

The set pieces went to plan this week, and strong forward play gave a decent platform to the three quarters to show what they could do.

There was a small blot on the Bridport copy-book with some indiscipline leading to a penalty in front of the posts and three points to the visitors.

Perhaps a little complacency also crept in as Bridport began to lose possession in open play. Smart kicking by North Dorset enabled their very swift right wing to chase down and score twice in succession. Both conversions were missed.

That was to be it though, for the visitors. Bridport tightened things up and rarely looked in any danger from then on.

Dan Down was awarded Man-of-the-Match for a superb performance all around the park at No 7.

The win sees Bridport second in Dorset & Wilts Two (S). This Saturday they visit Wimborne 3rd's.

Bridport Bowls

Successful season draws to an end with friendlies

BRIDPORT Bowling Club ended a very successful season which brought plenty of silverware, with a busy week of friendlies which saw them win two, but going down in the last one.

They started by beating COMBE MARTIN 113-97, winning three and drawing two of the six rinks with Fred Pomeroy, Paul Tibble, Janet Bird and Peter Carnel's 25-9 win the best result.

Next, touring side FAREHAM on their way home from Torquay. With three drawn and two rinks losing, it was the margin of victory by the Bridport's rinks that gave them victory 141-117 overall; Brian Rumble, Ian Newitt, Mary Corfield and Liz Neumann 26-15 victory making them top rink.

The last match however saw the hosts go down 119-134 against HEAVITREE, also on their way home from touring. Bridport won only three of the seven rinks with top rink being Keith Brooks, Sheila Jones, Michael Higman and Brian Pratt 25-9.

Saturday saw the traditional end of season mixed teams representing the Ladies and Men's Captains which provided a tigh finish in favour of the Ladies Captain 140-130.

Their top rink was Keith Brooks, Laura Taylor, Janet Bird and Jerry Apted, whilst Tom Tocher, Jan Tattershall, Mary Corfield and Max Dare were the best Men's Captain's rink.

Dorchester too strong

BRIDPORT & West Dorset Indoor Bowls Club played host to local rivals Dorchester, going down 63-73 overall.

Nova Varney, Barbara Jenkins, John Davies and Phil Hedges were the only winning rink. Despite dropping counts of 3,4, and 1 on the last three ends they still won comfortably by 21-14.

Lyn Sandall, Peter Varney, Brian Baker and Mary Hansford were trailing 3-11 early on, but hit a purple patch to lead 15-11.

However their opponents took control again to lead 21-18, but Hansford's quartet scrapped a draw with a three count on the final end.

Sylvia Fletcher, Pete Sandall, Jill Harding and Mike Fletcher scored a four on their final end to minimise their loss to 13-16, but Gerry Moss, Erica Sarsen, Barry Mapson and Keith Jenkins were up against a crack four and a dropped seven count sent them to a 8-22 defeat.

Bridport Skittles League

ENTRIES for all individuals, pairs, threes and fours competitions will be accepted up until this Sunday (September 28th). Entry forms can be found in the league fixture book.

Sophie polishes off title

LOCAL golfer Sophie Keech was given a "wild card" entry, in recognition of her World Ranking, to the recent Polish Junior Championship, part of the World Junior Golf Tournament Series (WJGTS) held in Wroclaw where entries included 55 players from 15 different countries.

Sophie's first round got off to a positive start with a birdie at the hardest ranked par 5, 2nd hole.

She finished the day one over par and a two shot lead in the girls' championship field.

Day two started with a delay due to the course being enveloped by fog.

But the delay had done nothing to dampen Sophie's game as she ended on top of the leader board by six shots.

The pin positions were far tougher on the third and final day and the heavy rain on the previous days meant the course was playing much longer.

However, Sophie birdied the first hole and at halfway was one under for the day and eight shots ahead of the field.

She then birdied both the par 3, 11th and the par 5, 15th. There was a large crowd waiting to cheer her in as champion on the 18th hole with an overall score of 3 under, a hugely impressive winning margin of 12 shots.

As the boys' competition came in with a winning score of 2 under, Sophie was declared the overall winner of the Championship.

Cricket extras

Broadwindsor Evening League Finals

THE Farmers won the Broadwindsor Evening League Finals beating Full Tosers by 35 runs.

The Farmers scored 140-5 with Will Frost hitting 51 and Richard Pusey 40, before dismissing their opponents for 105.

The winners had beaten favourites MDA in the semi-finals whilst Full Tosers accounted for White Lion.

The club would like to thank all the sponsors, helpers and supporters.

Beaminster beaten by Bowditch strike

Beaminster 2 Waytown Hounds 3

WAYTOWN Hounds recorded a memorable victory over their higher league opponents in the first semi-final of the Edwards Charity Cup played under the floodlights at Bridport FC on Thursday evening.

After an even but goalless first-half the game sprung into life after 52 minutes when Matt Read slipped the ball through the Rainbows defence to Jon Legg, the former Charmouth marksman, who coolly slotted home from the edge of the penalty area giving keeper Ben Fleet no chance.

Cool finish

Beaminster were immediately stung into action and equalised within two minutes through striker Greg Channing who cleverly lobbed Hounds keeper Lee Cuff.

At that stage it appeared as though Beaminster would seize the initiative and overpower the Hounds, but Waytown were up for the battle and defended doggedly breaking quickly with dangerous counter-attacks.

It was from one of those quick breaks that they took the lead once again on 65 minutes when Fleet could only palm away Read's fierce shot and Paul Watkins was on hand to knock in the rebound.

Beaminster responded with concerted attacks as the Waytown players began to tire. The pace of the Rainbows attacks down the left flank created good opportunities to equalise before former Chard Town and Misterton man Channing popped up again to restore parity with 15 minutes remaining.

Beaminster stormed forward in search of the winner, hitting the post with one good effort and sending a free header from a corner over the bar.

As players struggled with cramp the game became very open but to everyone's surprise Waytown mustered the energy for one more foray into the Beaminster half.

Keeper Fleet could only parry a strong shot from Legg and, with his team mates committed to attack, was left with little support allowing Nat Bowditch to scramble home a winner in the 87th minute and send the Waytown camp into delirium.

Manager Mark Hughes said: "This was one of the best team performances I have seen from a Hounds side, but I was particularly pleased with Ryan Harwood who is back with us after a couple of seasons away from football."

Broadwindsor claim title again

Broadwindsor 173-4 beat

Queen Camel 144 all out by 29 runs

BROADWINDSOR are champions of the Mid-Wessex League Division ONE for a third time in four years.

They went into Sunday's game with a 17-point advantage over their opponents Queen Camel, and needing just four points to become champions for the second successive year.

The visitors, a young and energetic side, won the toss and asked the hosts to bat, and soon had them in trouble at 38-4.

However, an unbeaten fifth wicket stand of 135 turned the tide Broadwindsor's way as Dan Hillier with 66 not out and an unbeaten half-century from Richie Runyard saw them able to post a reasonable target of 174 to win, and also earn enough batting points to win the title.

Queen Camel kept up with the run rate, particularly through captain Paul Worton (68), but they lost wickets regularly as all the home bowlers struck.

Captain Ade Phillips led the way with 3-29, and he was well backed up by Jack Walklett (2-20), Runyard (2-30) and Murray Legg (2-40) as the visitors were finally bowled out for 144.

Opener Steve Phillips who has had a great season with the bat said: "It has probably been our most satisfying title because we were unable to play the same side two weeks running, and so to maintain the form we have speaks volumes for all the squad of players."

Speedsters back to Charmouth for hill climb

CHANNEL Islanders Adrian and Brian Moody will return to Charmouth for the Manor Farm speed hill climb this weekend (September 27th /28th) with their Ralt RT3, where the father and son combination will be seeking overall victory. However they will have to face the challenge of the experienced Stuart Browne from Chard in his OMS SF2.

The fourth Woolbridge Motor Club event at Manor Farm Holiday Park, once again sponsored by the View From newspapers, has attracted a quality entry across the various classes which range from road-going cars, through modified categories to single-seater racing cars including a 12 strong class of 500 cc racing cars the ilk of which Stirling Moss developed his skills, which include Tim Sage from Bridport at the wheel of his Cooper-Jap Mk2.

The Rally car class sees Craig Moore from Lyme Regis take his Ford Cortina GT up against the rapid Darrian T90 pilot from Wimborne, Tim Porter. Both drivers have held the class record at Manor Farm so a fierce battle for supremacy is in prospect. Craig's son Ryan will compete in a Ford Puma he purchased a few weeks ago from a neighbour.

Recent Wiscombe Park class winner Stewart Green will be seeking similar glory in the Road-going Specialist Production car class in his Sylva Riot.

The Frampton driver's main opposition is likely to come from the Megabus powered Westfield of Adrian Lewis, whilst Weymouth Westfield father and son duo, Graham and Geoff Blake will be in action with their Vauxhall powered machine in the Modified Specialist Production car category.

Of particular interest to those who favour cars from yesteryear will be Rory Weaver's Riley 1.5.

The Weymouth driver will take his sixties machine up against more contemporary opposition in the Road Going category which in the Saturday event includes the Mazda MX5 of Dorchester driver Merv Brake.

The following day Kevin Joy will face the rapid Honda Integra of George Koopman in the 1800cc to 2600cc capacity split of the Road-going Series Production car class in his two-litre four-wheel drive turbo Saabru Impreza.

This promises once again to be an exciting days racing and a good day out for the family.

Admission to this spectacular event is just £6 per day Saturday and Sunday with children under 14 admitted free. Gates open 10am.

There is free car parking with free transfer to the competitor's enclosure and there is catering available onsite.

The sat nav location is DT6 6QL, for access, leave the A35 at the eastern edge of the village and proceed west along The Street following the orange 'Woolbridge' arrows which will be on the roadside verges.

INSIDE: Comprehensive local sport round-up

Below par finishing costs Bees

Hallen 1 Bridport 0

TOOLSTATION PREMIER – ATT: 52

DESPITE totally bossing the game at Hallen on Saturday, Bridport were left to rue missed chances that would have lifted them into a top six Toolstation Premier League spot.

Having been outstanding in beating Shepton Mallett midweek, the Bees continued that form on Saturday, and should according to manager Trevor Senior won by a hatful.

He said: "We murdered them; it was one of the most one-sided games I have been involved in, yet we lost!"

"We made so many chances we should have been at least four up at half-time.

"The second-half was much the same, and although we didn't look quite as dominant, they never caused us any problems.

"But the longer the game goes on without you taking your chances, you know the other side is going to nick it, and that's exactly what happened.

"Their guy just beat Ryan Hayter to the ball and toe poked a shot wide of the post, and the referee unbelievably gave a free kick for a foul by Ryan.

Then to add insult to injury, Matt Condliffe charged down the resulting free kick from the edge of the area and the ball deflected off his shin and wrong footed Ashley Weeks for a goal."

"It really is disappointing because we are playing so well, but we must convert the chances we make, we made enough to have won two games."

Tom Richardson had four good chances to score. One was kicked of the line and his late reaction at the far post saw another chance spurned.

Although Jamie Symes was unlucky with one effort that was blocked by a defender, he too missed two good one-on-one chances and dragged another wide, whilst Warrren Byerley also passed on a great opportunity he should have done better with.

With Condliffe and Matt Morley creating a flood of chances with crosses it seemed only a matter of time before the Bees would score.

The Hallen defence were so over-worked it looked like a defender had forgotten they had changed ends at half-time, and his thumping header only just cleared his own crossbar, before Condliffe brought a superb save out of home keeper Sam Burgess who managed to turn the wing backs 25-yard shot away from the top corner.

Then on 75 minutes substitute Matt Tovey's free-kick was deflected into the net for the winner.

Luck was not with the Bees even at the end when man of the match Jamie Filkins' close range volley at the far post bounced up off the turf and looped over the crossbar.
